Social Security

How would you protect Social Security for today's seniors and strengthen it for future generations?

AARP's Position:

Social Security should continue to guarantee that Americans who work and pay into the system receive benefits based on what they earn and contribute. Benefits should keep up with inflation and last for as long as an individual lives. We must strengthen Social Security for the future and protect benefits for people who count on them most, including surviving spouses and families, lower-wage workers, and disabled individuals who no longer can work. Social Security must be put on stable financial ground, but any adjustments should be implemented gradually so changes do not impact those in or near retirement.

Adam B. Schiff (Dem):

Social Security is the cornerstone of the New Deal and is the most successful anti-poverty program in our nation's history. It has helped millions of seniors achieve financial security in their golden years. For those retirees who are fortunate, Social Security is a steady supplement to their pension plans and private investments. For many others, it is their only source of retirement income...Congressman Schiff is committed to protecting Social Security to ensure it continues to work for this generation and for future generations. ## Medicare

How would you put Medicare on stronger financial ground and protect today's seniors and future retirees from rising health costs?

AARP's Position:

Medicare should be strengthened and improved so both current and future generations can count on having access to high-quality, affordable coverage. Medicare should continue to guarantee a specific set of benefits that are affordable and meet a person's health care needs. Medicare should offer choices that ensure access to high-quality health care. Medicare should improve the quality, safety, and efficiency of care by emphasizing value and cracking down on fraud, waste, and abuse.

Adam B. Schiff (Dem):

We must find a sensible way to reduce spending and ensure Social Security and Medicare remain strong. I am committed to reducing our federal deficit and cutting spending. Medicare and Social Security have kept millions of seniors out of poverty and could not support the phasing out of one, or the privatizing of the other. I am committed to strengthening Medicare, improving the health of seniors and the quality of care they receive, and lowering costs. (Source: Rep. Schiff's Facebook, <http://ow.ly/xNXYN>)

Financial Security

How would you help Americans save so they can secure their future and live independently as they age?

AARP's Position:

More opportunities and incentives should be available for all Americans to plan and save so they can have a more secure future. Freedom from age discrimination is a fundamental right and critical to Americans' ability to have a secure retirement. Every worker should be treated fairly, regardless of age. We need to support family caregivers who make it possible for more seniors to live in their homes and communities, where they want, rather than taxpayers and struggling families paying for costlier care.

Adam B. Schiff (Dem):

Providing tax and regulatory relief and improving access to capital are steps that we need to take in the short term to get the economy moving again. Over the long term, Schiff believes we must ensure that America continues to nurture the spirit of entrepreneurship that has encouraged new businesses, new technologies and new ventures to be born here.
