Social Security

How would you protect Social Security for today's seniors and strengthen it for future generations?

AARP's Position:

Social Security should continue to guarantee that Americans who work and pay into the system receive benefits based on what they earn and contribute. Benefits should keep up with inflation and last for as long as an individual lives. We must strengthen Social Security for the future and protect benefits for people who count on them most, including surviving spouses and families, lower-wage workers, and disabled individuals who no longer can work. Social Security must be put on stable financial ground, but any adjustments should be implemented gradually so changes do not impact those in or near retirement.

Norman G. Mosher (Dem):

Norm believes that the resources necessary to support the First District of Virginia's seniors must be protected, strengthened and made sustainable. (Source: Mosher Campaign Site <http://goo.gl/LKxOom>)

Rob J. Wittman (Rep):

AARP did extensive research but was unable to find any public statement on this issue by July 11, 2014.

Medicare

How would you put Medicare on stronger financial ground and protect today's seniors and future retirees from rising health costs?

AARP's Position:

Medicare should be strengthened and improved so both current and future generations can count on having access to high-quality, affordable coverage. Medicare should continue to guarantee a specific set of benefits that are affordable and meet a person's health care needs. Medicare should offer choices that ensure access to high-quality health care. Medicare should improve the quality, safety, and efficiency of care by emphasizing value and cracking down on fraud, waste, and abuse.

Rob J. Wittman (Rep):

I believe that any healthcare reform proposal must follow these principles: [...] Reforms Medicare with a focus on curbing waste, fraud and abuse. (Source: Rob Wittman 2012 Website, <http://ow.ly/z8oUh>)

Financial Security

How would you help Americans save so they can secure their future and live independently as they age?

AARP's Position:

More opportunities and incentives should be available for all Americans to plan and save so they can have a more secure future. Freedom from age discrimination is a fundamental right and critical to Americans' ability to have a secure retirement. Every worker should be treated fairly, regardless of age. We need to support family caregivers who make it possible for more seniors to live in their homes and communities, where they want, rather than taxpayers and struggling families paying for costlier care.

Norman G. Mosher (Dem):

We can't keep growing our great nation with an infrastructure that's dangerously in poor shape. We can't afford to waste the human potential of skilled craftspeople and builders out of work. We can create jobs, boost our economy, improve safety and future commerce by reinvesting in our needs here at home. Norm will work to ensure a living wage and job creation for the people of the First District of Virginia. (Source: Mosher Campaign Site <http://goo.gl/LKxOom>)

Rob J. Wittman (Rep):

Strengthening our economy is one of my top priorities in Congress: I support creating an environment for growth to get folks back to work and to encourage our job creators. Small businesses are the backbone of our economy and create over 70% of the new jobs in this country every year. We need to cut the bureaucratic red-tape that stifles growth and innovation.
